

2019 Youth Poultry Workshop

During the workshop, students will do the following:

- o Gain a general understanding of the poultry industry
- o Candle eggs to determine fertility
- o Break out eggs to determine hatchability issues
- o Grade Eggs according to USDA standards
- o Grade carcass according to USDA standards
- o Tour a broiler farm
- o Dissect birds and identify different internal organs

Lunch and T-Shirts Provided

Seats are limited so apply quickly!

Open to middle and high school students, public, private, home-school, in any county.

July 25th, 2019 - 9:30-3:30

To register contact Matthew Greene at mpgreene628@wilkescc.edu

by Wednesday July 24th, 2019

